BIG FISH – BASIC AUDITION INFO

BIG FISH features vivid characters and emotionally deep musical theatre storytelling. There are roles for actors, singers and dancers. All ethnicities are encouraged to audition.

EDWARD BLOOM: Male (35-50)

A loving husband and father who leads a complex imaginary life with many fantasy friends; requires a strong actor, singer, mover, who ages from 18 to 60+; a huge heart, a great sense of humor and a vivid imagination (bari-tenor, G2 to G4).

WILL BLOOM: Male (25-35)

Edward's son, a realist and a pragmatist; and the polar-opposite of Edward. His journey of reconciliation with his father is the story of the musical. This is the second male lead and requires a strong actor who sings beautifully. (tenor, C#3 to G4)

SANDRA BLOOM: Female (35-45)

Edward's wife, a loving woman who completely understands her husband and who seeks and believes in the possibility of reconciliation between her husband and son. This leading female role requires an actor who ages from 18 to 60+ and who is both a strong actress and singer – and very good mover. (soprano with mix/belt, G3 to E5)

JOSEPHINE BLOOM: Female (25-35)

Will's wife, a lovely young woman who provides balance for Will's pragmatism. With Sandra, she supports and helps guide Will's journey toward reconciliation with his father. This supporting female role requires a strong actor-singer. (mix/belt to C#5)

KARL: Male (30-45)

A giant, one of Edward's fantasy friends. This supporting role requires a tall actor who is over 6'. Through Edward's friendship, he grows from being a 'beastly' outcast to a highly successful businessman. This supporting role requires an actor who acts, sings, has an appreciation for comic irony, stilt walks, and moves well. (bass, A3 to D4)

AMOS CALLAWAY: Male (45-50)

A werewolf, another of Edward's fantasy friends. Masquerading as a ringmaster of a broken-down circus, he begins as Edward's tormentor but then, through Edward's acceptance, he accepts himself and becomes highly successful. This supporting role requires an actor-comic who acts, sings, and moves well. (baritone, C3 to F5, touches a G5)

DON PRICE: Male (25-35)

Edward's childhood frenemy, an early buddy, bully and rival for Sandra's hand. This supporting role requires a strong actor with a comic sensibility, a good singer and has movement skills. (baritone, C3 to F#4)

THE WITCH: Female (18+)

The earliest and most fantastic of Edward's "imaginary" acquaintances who shows him how he'll die. This supporting role requires a strong, sexy singer-dancer with commanding acting skills. (mezzo with high belt, useable F3 to F5)
